

CPCA Program for Fall 2020

“Write your life stories”

Outline:

Everyone has a life story to tell, and the aim of this program is to encourage participants to start writing their life stories creatively, story by story, or chapter by chapter, or theme by theme.

Some previous writing experience would be helpful but is not essential. There will be seven weekly sessions of up to 90 minutes each, using Zoom videoconferencing. Mentoring will be provided, and the participants will provide mutual support for each other. The sessions will be informal. Each session will include discussions on aspects of memoir writing, readings by two or three participants of a short piece they have written in the previous week, followed by group discussion and feedback. An assignment will then be suggested for the following week. (No actual writing will be done at the sessions.)

The group will be limited to seven participants and the fee will be $40. The first session will be held on Tuesday September 22nd at 7 p.m.

If you are interested, and before you register, please contact Michael Murphy at 306-244-5267, email michaeljmurphy@sasktel.net to ask questions and talk about your expectations of the program.
